§ 8428. Application to Interstate or Foreign Commerce. This Chapter and every provision thereof shall apply to commerce with foreign nations or to interstate commerce except insofar as such application is not permitted under the Constitution and laws and treaties of the United States or the Constitution of the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands.

§ 8429. Rate Structure and Approval Procedures.

- (a) No entity shall give preferences or improper or unreasonable advantages of any type related to rates, charges, or rents for services to any person, corporation, or geographic area nor shall it subject any person, corporation, or geographic area to undue prejudices, disadvantages, or discrimination in any other service aspect.
- (b) (1) Every entity shall present the Commission with a schedule of all rates, rents, and charges it proposes to assess for services of all types between points within the Commonwealth.
 - (2) The rate structure shall clearly set forth the sites between which the services shall be rendered and express separately all the charges, rates, privileges, or facilities granted or permitted and any internal rule or regulation or the terms and conditions of contracts that may in any way change, alter, affect, or determine any rate, rent, or charge or the sum of the rates, rents, or charges for the services rendered. The Commission shall promulgate regulations for maintaining all the information required by this subsection for public inspection.
- (c) (1) No entity may charge or receive amount of compensation for any service other than the rates, rents and charges specified in the entity's current rate structure on file with the Commission;
 - (2) An entity may reimburse or remit directly or indirectly, in any manner or by any means, any portion of the rates, rents, and charges so specified; and
 - (3) No entity shall grant any person or corporation any contract form or agreement, any rule or regulation, or any facility or privilege except those that are ordinarily and uniformly granted to all persons and corporations.

§ 8430. Methods and Procedures for Establishing Rates, Charges and Rents.

(a) The Commission shall establish the procedures and methods to be followed in setting and approving rates, charges and rents for entities' services. The methods and procedures may provide for the utilization of:

- (1) price-cap formulas that result in rate adjustments based on productivity and exogenous factors such as inflation indices and/or
- (2) formulas based on rate of return. The formulas may be utilized to establish flexible prices, i.e., maximum, minimum, or both types of prices.
- (b) The Commission shall be obligated to revise periodically the effect of the approved formulas for fixing rates, evaluating their effect on the entity, including rates of return on its investment, and modifying the factors and other components of said formulas on the basis of experience.
- (c) For the purposes of this subsection, the formula based on rate of return means the methodology used to approve charges and rates for a service that takes into consideration the public need for adequate, efficient and reasonable service, and the need of the entity to receive sufficient income to cover all current costs for offering said service, including taxes and interest, and including adequate provisions for the depreciation of property needed for rendering said service, and for deriving a fair and reasonable return on the value of their property using as a guide the return of equivalent risk enterprises and reasonable consideration that the Commission deems pertinent.
- (d) The Commission may utilize methods, analytical techniques and procedures for determining rates, rents, and charges that are different from those mentioned in this subsection, including forbearance of rate regulation and detariffing, provided it demonstrates in authentic form that the chosen method will satisfy the criteria established in this subsection for the rate structure in a more effective way than the methods mentioned herein.
- (e) No entity may use current revenue earned or expenses incurred in conjunction with services subject to regulation under this Chapter to subsidize services that are not regulated or are not tariffed. Expenses incurred in conjunction with services that are not regulated or that are not tariffed under this Chapter may not be attributed to services that are subject to regulation for any reason. The Commission may not subsidize the price of any entity's service, including wholesale prices or the prices of elements, by reducing the prices to reflect an allocation or credit of revenue from the operations of an affiliated company of the entity.

- § 8431. Procedure for Implementing or Modifying, Rates, Charges or Rents. The following procedures shall apply when implementing or modifying changes in rates, charges, and rents for an entity's services unless the Commission determines that these should not apply to the formula or procedure established for determining rates, and adopt alternative procedures.
 - (a) Notification. Every regulated entity interested in modifying the rates, charges, or rents applicable to its services shall provide public notice of such proposed modifications at least sixty (60) days prior to the effective date of the proposed changes. The Commission shall provide the form and content of the aforementioned notifications by regulation, provided that the public notification shall at least include the place, date, and time at which the public hearings on the proposed change will take place (which date must not be less than thirty (30) days nor more than thirty-five (35) days from the date of said notification); the rates, charges, or rents in force; the rates, charges, or rents whose adoption is proposed and the justification thereof and the effective date of the proposed changes. For the purpose of this clause, public notification shall include, as a minimum, its publication in one newspaper of general circulation that covers the area affected by the proposed change.
 - (b) Public Hearings. The Commission shall hold public hearings on proposed rate changes when these apply to non-competitive entity services. In cases of competitively-provided services the Commission shall have the discretion to hold such hearings.
 - (c) Access to Documents. The Commission shall place reports or documents supporting or justifying the proposed modifications to rates, charges, or rents at the disposition of the public sufficiently in advance of the date on which the hearings are to be held. In the event that public hearings are not held, the aforementioned information shall be available before the rates, charges, or rents go into effect.
 - (d) Opinion; Report. In the event the public hearing is presided over by an examiner, such examiner shall submit a report to the Commission within such period of time as the Commission may establish. The report shall include a list of objections, statements, opinions, documents, studies, recommendations, and other pertinent facts introduced in the hearings, together with conclusions and recommendations. Copies of said report shall be available to the public for examination and study. Any interested party may submit written comments in relation to said report within ten (10) days following the date same is made available to the public. Once this term has elapsed, the matter shall be submitted to the Commission, which must make a decision regarding the proposed rate change.

(e) Alternate Procedures. Prior to the expiration of the notification periods to the public established in this subsection for rate changes for an entity's services, the Commission may: (1) reject the proposed change in the rates, charges, or rents as clearly illegal or incompatible with any provision or purpose hereof; (2) suspend the effectiveness of said proposal and take such other actions as may be appropriate. It will not be necessary for the Commission to reject or suspend a proposed change in rates, charges, or rents in order to carry out a hearing related to the legality of said proposal.

§ 8432. Suspension of Proposed Rates, Charges or Rents.

- (a) After having initiated a hearing to consider a proposed rate change and while said hearing and the decision on same are pending, the Commission may suspend the application of said rate, charge, or rent in full or in part, for a period no longer than five (5) months on and after the time at which it would otherwise have become effective, by delivering a written statement to the affected regulated entity with the reasons for said suspension.
- (b) After a full hearing, the Commission may issue such orders as may be appropriate in a proceeding initiated after said rate, charge, or rent is in force. If the proceeding has not been concluded and an order has been issued within the suspension period, the proposed rate, charge, or rent, whether new or revised, shall become effective at the end of said period. In the case of a proposed change for a new service or an increase in the charges, the Commission may, by order, require the interested entity to maintain a precise accounting of all the amounts received by reason of said rates, charges, or rents for new services or increases in rates, charges, or rent, specifying by whom and in benefit of whom said amounts are paid. Once the hearing has concluded and a decision has been issued, the Commission may, by another order, require the affected entity to reimburse with interest the persons in whose representation said amounts were paid, with that portion of said rate, charge, or rent for new service or increase in rates, charges or rents, for which, by determination, the Commission finds no justification. In any hearing in which an already increased or to be increased charge is involved, the weight of the proof demonstrating that said increase in rates, charges, or rents is fair and reasonable shall fall upon the regulated entity.

(c) If the Commission determines that conditions require immediate action, it may waive the requirement for a prior hearing and shall make its determinations pursuant to the information in its possession. If the Commission or the reviewing court subsequently determines that the partial or temporary rates fixed by the Commission were not fair and reasonable, it shall permit the affected regulated entity to recover the amount that represents the difference between the gross income obtained by reason of the temporary rates and the gross income it would have obtained, had the finally authorized rates been fixed originally, by means of a temporary increase in the definitive rates.

§ 8433. Fixing of Just and Reasonable Rates, Charges and Rents.

(a) If, as part of a complaint, or an authorization process for changing rates, charges, or rents, or under an investigation order issued by the Commission at its own initiative, the Commission determines after holding a hearing that any rate, charge or rent of any regulated entity is or shall be in violation of any provisions hereof, incompatible with the purposes hereof, unreasonable or shall offer improper advantages or preferences to said regulated entity, or otherwise endangers the stability of the provision of the entity's services to the Commonwealth, the Commission may determine and fix what the just and reasonable rates, charges, and rents shall be, or the maximum or minimum rates, charges or rents that must be observed.

 (b) The Commission may order a regulated entity to cease and desist from said rates, charges, or rents to the extent that the Commission deems necessary, and may prohibit the entity from publishing, demanding, or charging any rate, charge, or rent that is different from that fixed by the Commission, or in excess of the maximum or less than the minimum, as the case may be.

§ 8434. Service Outages. The Commission may order a regulated entity to credit or rebate its customers a proportion of such customer's basic service fee if there has been a service outage or a series of service outages and such outage or outages has been determined by the Commission to be unreasonable. The Commission shall promulgate rules and regulations to define an "unreasonable service outage," the formula for determining the amount of credit or rebate, and any other necessary rules and regulations necessary to implement this subsection.

§ 8435. Complaints to the Commission: Violations and Penalties.

- (a) Customer complaints to the Commission regarding the operation of a regulated entity shall be filed in writing with the Commission. The Commission shall take up such complaints with the regulated entity, in an effort to bring about the satisfaction of the complaint without a formal hearing.
- (b) The Commission shall resolve all complaints, if possible, informally. No form of informal complaint is prescribed, but the writing must contain the essential elements of a complaint, including the name and address of the complainant, the name of the regulated entity against which the complaint is made, a clear and concise statement of the facts involved, and a request for affirmative relief.
- (c) In the event that the Commission cannot resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of all parties, the complainant may file a formal request to the Commission and will be entitled to a hearing.
- (d) If the Commission determines that any rate, action, omission, rule regulation, classification, or practice of a regulated entity violates any provision hereof or any rule or order of the Commission, then the Commission may:

- (1) order said entity to pay the complainant the damages it caused that are attributable to said rate, act, omission, rule, regulation, classification, or practice, and
- (2) order said entity to take such actions or desist from carrying out such actions as the Commission may determine are reasonably necessary for desisting from the violation.
- (e) A regulated entity may be subject to a fine or civil penalty in accordance with this section, upon a determination by the Commission or court that the entity has violated any of the following:
 - (1) The material terms of its certificate of public convenience and necessity; or
 - (2) Substantial compliance with this Chapter or rules or orders prescribed by the Commission.
- (f) The Commission may impose administrative fines of up to a maximum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars for each violation hereof. In the case of a continuing violation, each day that transpires shall constitute a separate offense, but the total amount of the fine imposed shall not exceed five hundred thousand ($500,000) dollars. Any penalty assessed under this subsection is in addition to any other costs, expenses or payments for which the regulated entity is responsible under other provisions of this subsection.
- (g) The Commission may permit, in lieu of a full hearing before the Commission, that one of its hearing examiners conduct hearings and report its findings to the Commission.
- (h) Where a complaint is found to have been groundless and filed in bad faith by a customer, in whole or in part, the Commission shall assess costs in whole or in part for investigation, defense, and other associated costs, including but not limited to, reasonable attorney fees borne by the regulated entity and the Commission in the review of the complaint to the customer.
 - (i) The Commission shall adopt rules governing the filing of such complaints.

§ 8436. Judicial Review. Any person aggrieved by a final Action of the Commission may seek judicial review pursuant to 1 CMC § 9112, et seq. within thirty (30) days of its issuance. Such review shall be limited to questions of law, the record established, and issues raised before the Commission.

§ 8437. Interim Rules and Regulations. Except as provided herein, the regulations, standards, procedures, and all other such aspects related to the regulation of the functions and operations of the regulated entities that may be in force when this Act becomes effective, shall continue to apply until amended or repealed by the Commission, pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 8. REGULATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

- § 8438. Rates, Charges and Assessments. All rates, charges, assessments, and costs made or charged by any Public Utility shall be just and reasonable and in conformance with public law.
 - (a) The Commission shall regulate all rates, charges, assessments including but not limited to connection fees, reconnection fees, line extension charges, etc. in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.
- § 8439. Divestiture of Capital. All Public Utilities shall obtain prior approval of the Commission for the significant divestiture, transference of operations, sale or lease of production or transmittal of electrical, water, or wastewater facilities and/or transmissions systems.
 - (a) Approval of Divestiture is subject to provisional approval of proposed rate structure following divestiture.
 - (b) A significant divestiture, transference of operations, sale or lease of production or transmittal of electrical, water, or waste water facilities and/or transmissions systems is that which may modify or change the rate structure being charged to the customer.
- § 8440. Expansion of Production Facilities. All Public Utilities must obtain prior approval of the Commission for the significant purchase of capital for the production or transmission of electricity, water, or treatment of wastewater.

- (a) Approval of purchase is subject to preliminary approval of proposed rate structure following divestiture.
- (b) A significant purchase of capital for the production of electricity, water, or treatment of wastewater is that purchase which may cause a modification or change in the rate structure being charged to the customer.

§ 8441. Certification of Public Utility Companies.

- (a) (1) Certification Required. Any public utility company interested in providing or operating a service in the Commonwealth shall request, obtain, and maintain a valid certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission except as provided for in subsection (d) of this section.
 - (2) The Commission shall grant certification to a public utility company if it determines that, aside from complying with the established criteria, certification is consistent with the public interest. When Acting upon a request, the Commission may grant certification in full or in part and may impose such conditions and terms as it determines to be reasonably necessary for achieving the purposes hereof.
- (b) Modifications, Suspensions, and Revocations. A certification granted by the Commission pursuant to provisions of this article may be modified, suspended, or revoked by the Commission for just cause after notice and opportunity for hearing.
 - (c) Authorization for Discontinuation or Cessation of Services.
 - (1) No public utility company may discontinue, reduce, or diminish its provision of services unless it requests and obtains a valid authorization from the Commission for said discontinuation, reduction, or diminishment.
 - (2) The Commission shall adopt regulations specifying the form, content, procedure, and criteria for filing requests for such authorizations and for providing the public with the opportunity to express itself thereon. Said procedure shall, without it being understood as a limitation, include the publication of notices notifying the public about said requests. When acting upon requests for discontinuation, cessation, reduction, or diminishment of a service, the Commission shall consider the reasons on which the request is based together with the consequences of a social nature and public interest that may result from its decision. The Commission may grant or deny the request in full or in part, or impose such conditions on every total or partial authorization as it deems reasonably necessary for achieving the purposes hereof.

(d) Existing Franchises. The Commonwealth Utilities Corporation shall not be required to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission. Nor, while as a government entity, shall the Commonwealth Utilities Corporation be subject to § 8421 of this chapter. In the event that the Commonwealth Utilities Corporation privatizes its power, water, or sewer division, the private company or contractor that operates the power, water, or sewer division shall be required to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity from the Commission and be subject to § 8421 of this chapter.

ARTICLE 9. REGULATION OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS

- § 8442. Additional Definitions. The following additional definitions apply to this article:
 - (a) 'Federal Communications Act of 1934' means the Federal Communications Act of 1934,47 U.S.C. 151 et seq., as amended, which includes the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996;
 - (b) 'Gross Revenue' or 'revenues' means the gross revenue from telecommunications services that originate or terminate in the Commonwealth and are billed for a service address in the Commonwealth, excluding revenue from the resale of telecommunications services to another telecommunications service provider that uses the telecommunications services to provide telecommunications services to the ultimate retail customer who originates or terminates the transmission.
 - § 8443. Transfers and Capitalization.
 - (a) Transfers. Franchises, certificates of public convenience and necessity, substantial assets as defined by regulation, and certificates of capital stock of a telecommunications company, as well as direct or indirect control of a person or corporation possessing the same, may not be sold, assigned, transferred, mortgaged, or otherwise encumbered without the prior consent of the Commission. The Commission shall adopt regulations that specify the form, content and procedures for filing the pertinent requests and for giving the public the opportunity to express its viewpoints. This subsection shall not be interpreted to the effect that it impedes the sale, encumbrance, or disposal of property that is not necessary or useful for the rendering of telecommunications services by any telecommunications company.

- (b) Capitalization. The Commission shall establish the minimum capital requirements that each telecommunications company must satisfy. When establishing said requirements, the Commission may take into account the capitalization of any entity that may have an interest in the telecommunications company. The Commission shall also have authority to adopt rules related to mortgages, encumbrances, and other liabilities on the stock and assets of the telecommunications company, including rules requiring the prior approval of the Commission to carry out financial transactions, such as security contracts, mortgages, or any other type of encumbrance or liability. Any transaction of any type that results in a violation of the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), above, or the rules that the Commission may adopt by virtue thereof shall be null and void.
- § 8444. Compliance: Standards of Service and Facilities.
- (a) General Standard. Every telecommunications company shall supply and maintain adequate and efficient telecommunications services, where economically feasible, on all Commonwealth islands. Unjust or unreasonable discriminations in rendering telecommunications services are prohibited. Every telecommunications company shall adopt and present to the Commission the quality criteria it will utilize to achieve the aforementioned standards and objectives.
- (b) Quality Criteria. For local telecommunications services, such criteria shall include, but without being limited to, the following:
 - (1) installation and repair of facilities;
 - (2) management of calls by operators;
 - (3) completed calls;

- (4) transmission and noise;
- (5) suspension of service for failure to pay;
- (6) invoices to customers and disputes on invoicing; and
- (7) interruptions in the service.

For local telecommunications services, the standards adopted by the Commission shall ensure that such services are provided to all customers on all Commonwealth islands where technically feasible and at the lowest possible cost in keeping with good service.

- (c) Specification of Services and Facilities. If it is determined that such is reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes hereof, the Commission shall have the authority to require the telecommunications company to carry out the repairs, changes, alterations, additions, extensions, and improvements needed to achieve the quality standards and objectives.
- § 8445. Insurance. The Commission shall have the authority to require telecommunications companies to insure for such amounts and against such risks as the Commission determines to be reasonably necessary to guarantee the payment by said companies or their directors, officials, employees, agents, or contractors that is otherwise deemed necessary for complying with the purposes hereof. To this effect the Commission may require them to acquire insurance policies and/or bonds that demonstrate their capacity to assume the financial loss associated with such risks, through self-insurance or any other mechanism acceptable to the Commission.

§ 8446. Forbearance of Rate Regulation to Facilitate Competition.

- (a) In accordance with the provisions of this section, the Commission shall forbear regulation as to rates, tariffs, fares, or charges to facilitate competition and shall authorize the provision of all or any portion of regulated telecommunications service under stated or negotiated terms to any person or entity that has acquired or is contemplating acquisition of, through construction, lease, or any other form of acquisition similar telecommunications service from an alternate source.
- (b) At any time, the provider of regulated telecommunications service may file a verified application with the Commission for forbearance of regulation to facilitate competition. The application must describe the telecommunications service to be offered, the customer to be served, and the party or parties offering similar service, together with other information and in a form that the Commission may prescribe. The additional information must be reasonably related to the determination of the existence of an alternative offer but may not require information relating to the cost of providing the service.

- (c) The Commission shall approve or deny an application for forbearance of regulation to facilitate competition within thirty (30) days after the filing of the application. If the Commission has not acted on an application within the permitted time period, the application is considered granted. The Commission shall deny the application only upon a finding that the application is incomplete or that the subject or similar service is not being offered to the customer by parties other than the applicant. If a customer or potential customer of the provider seeking forbearance requests a quotation of prices from another provider of telecommunications service having tariffs or price lists for similar services on file with the Commission, the Commission may presume the existence of competition.
- (d) Upon approval of the application, the provider of telecommunications service may negotiate with a person or an entity for the provision of the service without regard to its tariffs or price lists on file with the Commission.
- (e) Within ten (10) days after the conclusion of the negotiations, the provider of regulated telecommunications service shall file with the Commission the final contract or other evidence of the service to be provided, together with the charges and other conditions of the service. Thereafter, for the term of the contract, the provider of regulated telecommunications service may provide the service to the customer without regard to its tariffs or price lists on file with the Commission.
- (f) Services provided pursuant to subsection (a) remain subject to the regulatory powers of the Commission.

§ 8447. Duty to Interconnect.

(a) The purpose of this section is to implement specific provisions of the Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996, Public Law 104-104.

- (b) (1) Each telecommunications carrier shall perform the duties enumerated in 47 U.S.C. 251(a).
- (2) Each local exchange carrier shall perform the duties enumerated in 47 U.S.C. 251(b).
- (3) In addition to the duties provided for in subsection (b) (2), each local exchange carrier shall perform the duties enumerated in 47 U.S.C. 251(c).
- § 8448. Voluntary Negotiation of Interconnection Agreements. Upon receiving a request for interconnection, services, or network elements, an incumbent local exchange carrier may negotiate and enter into a binding agreement with the requesting telecommunications carrier or carriers. The agreement must include a detailed schedule of itemized charges for interconnection and each service or network element included in the agreement.
- § 8449. Mediation of Interconnection Agreements. Upon the written request of any party negotiating an agreement for interconnection with another telecommunications carrier, the Commission may designate a mediator, who may be a Commission member, to mediate any differences arising in the course of the negotiation.
 - § 8450. Arbitration of Interconnection Issues.
 - (a) The Commission has the authority to arbitrate any open interconnection issues pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 252(b), as it existed on February 8, 1996.
 - (b) During the period from the 135th to the 160th day, inclusive, after the date on which an incumbent local exchange carrier receives a request for negotiation, the carrier or any other party to the negotiation may petition the Commission to arbitrate any open issues. A party that petitions the Commission under this section shall, at the same time as it submits the petition, provide the Commission with all relevant documentation concerning the following:
 - (1) the unresolved issues;
 - (2) the position of each of the parties with respect to those issues; and
 - (3) any other issue discussed and resolved by the parties.

- (c) A party petitioning the Commission under this section shall provide a copy of the petition and any documentation to the other party or parties not later than the day on which the Commission receives the petition.
- (d) A nonpetitioning party to a negotiation may respond to the other party's petition and provide any additional information that it wishes within 15 days after the Commission receives the petition.
- (e) The Commission shall limit its consideration to those issues set forth by the parties to the negotiation in the petition for arbitration and the response to the petition.
- (f) The Commission may appoint a hearing examiner for arbitration proceedings under this section. The hearing examiner shall file with the Commission a proposed decision within the time set by order of the Commission. A hearing examiner must be assigned with regard to the expertise required for the particular matter. On the filing by a party, in good faith, of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias, lack of independence, disqualification by law, or other disqualification of a hearing examiner or on the hearing examiner's own motion, the Commission shall determine the affidavit or motion as a part of the record in the case. The Commission may disqualify the hearing examiner and appoint another hearing examiner. The affidavit must state the facts and the reasons for the belief that the hearing examiner should be disqualified and must be filed not less than ten (10) days before the original date set for the hearing.
- (g) Participation in the arbitration proceeding must be limited to the telecommunications carrier requesting the arbitration, the telecommunications carrier from which interconnection is being sought, and the Commonwealth consumer counsel.
 - (h) Negotiations among the telecommunications carriers may continue,
- (i) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, the Commission shall, within 10 days of the filing of a request for arbitration, conduct a conference with the parties for the purpose of establishing a schedule for the orderly and timely disposition of the arbitration. The schedule must include discovery deadlines and a hearing date.

- (j) The Commission may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records, documents, and other evidence relevant to the issues being arbitrated and may administer oaths. Subpoenas must be served and enforced in the manner provided by law for the service and enforcement of subpoenas in a civil Action in Superior Court. The Commission shall regulate the course of the hearings and the need for filing briefs and may direct the parties to appear and confer to consider simplification of the issues by consent of the parties pending a final decision by the arbitrator.
- (k) The Commission shall issue its final decision no later than six (6) months after the request for negotiations on a petition issued. When the Commission files its final decision or when the hearing examiner files the proposed decision with the Commission, each party must be simultaneously given a copy delivered personally or by certified mail. The decision must:
 - (1) ensure the resolution of issues presented by the parties and this section;
 - (2) establish rates for interconnection, services, or access to unbundled network elements pursuant to 47 U.S.C. 252(d); and
 - (3) provide a schedule for implementation of the terms and conditions of the decision by the parties.
- (l) If the person who conducted the hearing becomes unavailable to the Commission, the Commission is not precluded from issuing a final decision based on the record if the demeanor of the witnesses is considered immaterial by all parties.
- (m) Unless required for the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, the person or persons who are charged with the duty of rendering a decision or of making findings of fact and conclusions of law in an arbitration proceeding, after issuance of notice of hearing, may not communicate with any party or a party's representative in connection with any issue of fact or law in the case unless there is notice and opportunity for all parties to participate.

§ 8451. Approval of Arbitration Decision.

- (a) If the Commission has not approved or rejected in its entirety an agreement adopted by arbitration within thirty (30) days of submission by the parties, the agreement is considered approved.
- (b) The Commission may reject the agreement only if the Commission finds that the agreement does not meet the requirements of 47 U.S.C. 251 and the regulations prescribed to implement that section by the FCC or the standards set forth in 47 U.S.C. 252(d). Upon rejection of an agreement, the Commission shall provide the parties with written findings as to any deficiencies.

§ 8452. Approval of Interconnection Agreements.

- (a) Within thirty (30) days of filing of an interconnection agreement adopted by negotiation of the parties to an agreement, the Commission shall approve or reject the agreement, or the agreement is considered approved.
- (b) The Commission may reject an agreement filed under this section only if the Commission finds that:
 - (1) the agreement or a portion of the agreement discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the agreement; or
 - (2) the implementation of the agreement or a portion thereof is not consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity.
- (c) Upon rejecting an agreement filed under this section, the Commission shall issue written findings detailing any deficiencies in the agreement.

§ 8453. Determination of Eligible Carrier Status - Universal Service Support.

- (a) The Commission is authorized to designate telecommunications carriers as eligible for Federal Universal Service support, in accordance with 47 U.S.C. 214(e)(l) and 47 U.S.C. 254, and for any CNMI universal service funds. This authorization applies to all telecommunications carriers notwithstanding the carrier exemption from further regulation by the Commission.
- (b) Upon the petition of a telecommunications carrier, or upon its own motion, the Commission shall designate a telecommunications carrier that meets the requirements of 47 U.S.C. 214(e)(l) as an eligible telecommunications carrier for a service area designated by the Commission. In the case of an area served by a rural telephone company, the term "service area" means the company "study area" for Federal Universal Service support unless the FCC establishes a different definition of service area for the company. The term "service area" for all other telecommunications carriers means a geographic area such as a census block or grid block as established by the Commission for the purpose of determining federal universal service obligations and support mechanisms.

- (c) Upon receiving a petition from a telecommunications carrier and consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity, the Commission may, in the case of an area served by a rural telephone company, and shall, in the case of all other areas, designate more than one telecommunications carrier for a service area, so long as each additional requesting telecommunications carrier meets the requirements of 47 U.S.C. 214(e)(1). Before designating an additional eligible telecommunications carrier for an area served by a rural telephone company, the Commission shall find that the designation is in the public interest.
- (d) If no telecommunications carrier will provide the services that are supported by universal service support mechanisms under 47 U.S.C. 254(c) to all or a part of an unserved community that requests service, the Commission shall determine which telecommunications carrier is best able to provide the service to the requesting unserved community. Any telecommunications carrier ordered to provide service under this section shall meet the requirements of 47 U.S.C. 214(e)(1) and must be designated as an eligible telecommunications carrier for that community or the unserved portion of the community.
- (e) The Commission shall permit an eligible telecommunications carrier to relinquish its designation as an eligible carrier in any area served by more than one eligible telecommunications carrier. An eligible telecommunications carrier that seeks to relinquish its eligible telecommunications carrier designation for an area served by more than one eligible telecommunications carrier shall give advance notice to the Commission of the relinquishment. Prior to permitting a telecommunications carrier designated as an eligible telecommunications carrier to cease providing universal service in an area served by more than one eligible telecommunications carrier, the Commission shall require the remaining eligible telecommunications carrier to ensure that all customers served by the relinquishing carrier will continue to be served and shall require sufficient notice to permit the purchase or construction of adequate facilities by any remaining eligible telecommunications carrier. The Commission shall establish a time, not to exceed one (1) year after the Commission approves relinquishment under this section, within which the purchase or construction must be completed.

- § 8454. Discounts for Schools, Libraries, Youth Learning Centers and Health Care Providers.
